The American Legion Weekly, Vol. 2 2017-10-21 the church of the nazarene embraces american attachments to democratic rule individual initiative efficiency and a strong sense of responsibility as a city on a hill it is also present in more than 150 world areas these attributes are reflected in the astounding story of one of the founders of the denomination h f reynolds who has been long hidden in the shadow of his early colleague phineas bresee while the church points to bresee as its founding father reynolds lived and served for an additional two decades following bresee s death shaping the role of the general superintendency clarifying and expanding the church s manual to meet the needs of the growing denomination and establishing mission policies and practices that took it from a us church to a global presence reynolds maintained a lively devotion to christ as he survived train wrecks war dread disease and the sheer volume of meetings correspondence and explosive scandal that came with the nurturing of a new church his vision and methods have profoundly influenced a denomination that does not know his name this volume is designed to make the introduction

Class of 1870, Williams College, June 18, 1920 1920 the first biography of missy meloney the most important woman you ve never heard of marie missy mattingly meloney was born in 1878 in an america where women couldn t vote yet she recognized the power that women held as consumers and family decision makers and persuaded male publishers and politicians to take them seriously over the course of her life as a journalist magazine editor in chief and political advisor missy created the idea of the female demographic after the passage of the 19th amendment she encouraged candidates to engage with and appeal to women directly in this role she advised presidents from hoover and coolidge to fdr by the time she died in 1943 women were a recognized political force to be reckoned with in this groundbreaking biography historian julie des jardins restores missy to her rightful place in american history

Barge Record Covering the Period from June 18, 1920 Through April 17, 1922 1920 when jack johnson defeated white heavyweight champion jim jeffries in 1910 it was america s notions of racial superiority that staggered under his blows amid riots and lynchings the search began for the great white hope who could put the uppity new champion in his place here is the startling true story of the most famous and most hated black american of his day papa jack takes us into a violent and sordid world it is an astonishing tale of black defiance and white retribution set against the dramatic canvas of sports and spectacle in jim crow america
