The 7 Principles of Success 2017-04-22 take a look at the photo of the squirrel on the cover page of this book do you think the squirrel can eat that from where do you think he s got the self believe as to feel so confident to hold on to such a big meal that photo highlights one thing and that is all that man will ever require to enjoy life and become success in finance relationship health and happiness is right within man now how do you see life do you think that you can succeed in this life irrespective of what your perspective is life is for the sole purpose of personal growth success and happiness the meaning you extract from what you see hear and experience is not the whole truth especially when these reflect unpleasant situations why because there is always two complementing sides to everything two sides that makes up the whole male or female tall or short clean or dirty day or night healthy or ill single or married alive or dead and finally rich or poor it s i alone who is to a large extent responsible for the kind of experiences which color my life truth be told i determine the experiences by the way i interpret and react to events if you re ill you can become healthy if you re poor you can become rich and if you re single you can become married because there are always two complementing sides to everything so just because your life reflects a part of the two sides does not guarantee that you will remain there you can only remain there if you so chose to based upon what you see and experience do not judge or pin your life to the half of the whole if someone who was once poor uneducated and without skill can become rich then you can if someone once ill and condemned by doctors can become healthy so too you can if someone once single can find love and companionship so you can and if someone who in spite of the odds of environment and life s challenges can become successful and fulfilled so you can too there s absolutely no reason why they can and you can t knowledge is the key an understanding of who you are and why you have a desire to live your life in a particular way of choice is a must for you if you are to enjoy a well rounded growth success and a fulfilled life it is for the purpose of that knowledge that s why you have this book do give your concentrated attention to its study for it holds the truth to life that will set you free thank you

You Are Successful 2020-06-04 why do some people achieve so much more than others can they lie so far out of the ordinary no one starts with nothing rags to riches stories fool us because although they may be factually true you may start your life poor and finish it rich they leave out all the advantages of circumstances that contribute to success further they make us believe that success is an individual achievement but no one succeeds alone focusing on outliers explains why the self made man is a myth and what truly lies behind the success of the best people in their field which is often a series of lucky events rare opportunities and other external factors which are out of our control therefore i expected the book to be about deliberate practice and how success is in your own hands if you work hard enough boy was i wrong the book argues the exact opposite
