excerpt from report of the proceedings at the annual dinner of the cobden club july 23rd 1870 there are many of us my lords and gentlemen who remember mr cobden there are many of us who had the honour and privilege of calling him friend there are many of us who knew the breadth the power the purity the simplicity of his character cheers and who were tempted to murmur at that dispensation of providence which removed him too early as we thought from amongst us for we grudged the loss of all that instruction which we believed to be locked in his mind and which might have proceeded from his lips and his pen cheers but it was a higher power it was a less erring judgment that determined the moment at which the lot of his life was fulfilled to us it is left to turn to account as well as we can the heritage which he left hear hear to cherish the memory of his virtues and his deeds and to endeavour if we can to extract from them the means of future benefit for this and other generations cheers about the publisher forgotten books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books find more at forgottenbooks.com this book is a reproduction of an important historical work forgotten books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy in rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition we do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
