as jacques derrida wrote in 1995 while considering archive fever nothing is less reliable or less clear today than the word archive nevertheless the historic cultural dimension of the contemporary discursive practices in cinema and art develops in the semantic openendedness of the term in the repositioning of the idea of archive the individual disciplines involved in one such field history of cinema and art theory of cinema and art aesthetics semiotics philology etc begin to open up to questioning the notion of archive even in negative in other words what after michel foucault the archive is not or does not seem to be the archive is not the library of libraries or encyclopedia it is not memory it is not museum it is not a database in recent years the attention focused on such ideas has not so much highlighted the impulses turns and specific forms of art art archive as it has revealed in many ways how the archive concerns us in the interrelation of aesthetic political ethical and legal levels among various disciplinary fields
