Creating Third Spaces of Learning for Post-Capitalism 2023-03-31 this book evaluates why cities choose to bid for the olympics why olympic bids fail and whether cities can benefit from failed bids attention is shifted away from host cities or winners to consider the impact of the bidding process on urban development in losing cities oliver and lauermann show that bidding is often a politically strategic exercise as planning ideas are recycled from one bid project to the next as olympic bids become more deeply embedded in urban development and bid teams engage in legacy planning oliver and lauermann demonstrate that bid failure is rarely definitive and is often a desirable result this volume adds a new and innovative perspective to olympic studies and mega events more broadly with appeal to a variety of other disciplines including geography urban planning spatial politics and sport and civic policy
